

POLICY FOR FARWELL BAND BOOSTER SENIOR SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION AND INFORMATION

INFORMATION:

Scholarship Award

Farwell Band Booster Executive Board will set aside $400 annually for scholarships if funds allow. All scholarship awards will normally be $100 for any individual. That means that any given year we could have up to four recipients of this Band Booster Senior Scholarship. The intention of this scholarship program is specifically tied to assisting students with the cost of college. Students do not have to be attending college for music or even participating in music activities at college in order to receive this scholarship.

Scholarship Award Criteria

- Application for this award is open to any current Band student of Farwell Area Schools who is a graduating senior.
- The John Phillip Sousa Award recipient would most likely receive a scholarship.
- Students with high merit and outstanding accomplishments will be considered first.
- Student must have had good attendance in Band class and Performances.
- Student must be a person who has paid all fees in full.
- Students must have regularly returned all uniforms and properly maintained school owned instruments throughout High School.

Procedure

1. Read through this information thoroughly
2. Fill out and sign the Scholarship Application and return them to Mr. Shimmons at Farwell High School by the start of April.
3. A committee will be formed including the Director of Bands and the Band Booster Executive Board to approve applications and determine awardees towards the end of April.
4. You will be notified the beginning of May.
5. The Scholarships will be announced officially at the FHS Awards Ceremony in May.
6. The recipients will then be given the scholarship money after proof of successfully completing a semester at college the December after graduating from Farwell.

FARWELL BAND BOOSTER SCHOLARSHIP POLICY STATEMENT: While Farwell Band Boosters strive to promote music education and Band performances in the Farwell Community, we like to recognize outstanding musical ability and merit. Farwell Band Boosters will assist with scholarships based on monies available.
